

TENNESSEE AQUARIUM SCAVENGER HUNT

Read the clues, follow the flags, and fill in the answers!

All of these countries are actively protecting ecosystems & native wildlife with conservation work by various groups like Project Piaba, Zapata Crocodile Farm, Altenare, & many more.

|                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| The Orinoco River runs through this country &amp; provides habitat for this 'shocking' fish. _____                   | This country may be best known for the Galapagos, but its rivers are home to a giant, the Arapaima. _____          | Green Moray Eels are seen around these 2 islands, often called "Two wings of the same bird". _____   |
| Pacu swim throughout this Portuguese speaking country.* _____                                                        | This country connects 2 oceans and is home to the seahorses' freshwater cousin. _____                              | The giant Redtail Catfish swims throughout this landlocked country. _____                            |
| Box turtles are found throughout the US, but look to Central America's largest country for a few more species. _____ | Fill in the name of a Spanish speaking country missing from this game! _____                                       | This country is home to the southernmost city in the world &amp; has a 'super' small resident. _____ |
| This country is known for it's coffee, orchids, &amp; Cardenal Tetra. _____                                          | This country's famous lake was once directly connected to the ocean &amp; is now home to bright orange fish. _____ | These 2 countries conserve butterflies through educational farms &amp; preserves. _____              |

*Hispanic Heritage Month was established to recognize and celebrate the history, culture, and contributions of Spanish-speaking communities. Today, the celebration has grown to recognize the rich diversity of Latin America, including Brazil, Haiti, Guyana, and many others.